Its size and strength make it a little heavier

“...Very durable product...” Rachael, Alperton School

Endurance Summit

Summit 200 Group price £135
Summit 300 Group price £150

Classic mountain design, superb stability
Smaller living space but very lightweight
Slightly more technical to pitch

“...purchased a couple of Endurance tents in 2015 to give them a test run. They proved highly successful. In 2016 we purchased 10 Summit tents in preparation for our Gold Expedition to the Massif Central in France...”
Tony, Canterbury Gold

Semi-geodesic tents, stable and simple to pitch

Tunnel tents, roomy and lightweight

Endurance Plateau

Plateau 200 Group price £130
Plateau 300 Group price £140

Identical poles; easy maintenance and pitching
Excellent space to weight ratio, huge porch
Components compatible with Crag

“I have over 350 pupils doing DofE so there is a need for a large quantity of tents. What we want is one that has strength, ease of use, a quality finish, is spacious whilst remaining light. The Plateau does just that.”
Simon, Blue Coat School

Endurance Crag

Crag 200 Group price £100
Crag 300 Group price £110

Identical poles; easy maintenance and pitching
Exceptionally simple and lightweight
Components compatible with Plateau

“...they have successfully been used with a wide variety of DofE groups across the UK in all conditions. They have some simple and uncomplicated features which is ideal for these groups, same length poles...”
Richard, Peak Expeditions

Terrain tents, entry level, for price conscious groups

Terrain Haven

Haven 200 Group price £64
Haven 300 Group price £74

Easy to pitch and fairly stable
Use of basic construction materials greatly reduces the price but makes the tent heavier

“...well designed and seems robust. I like the features of single-zip opening, as on previous tents, students would open the doors from the bottom, and this could end up in the zip being damaged. I also like the reassurance that spares will be available in future...”
Joni, St Joseph's College

Terrain Anchor

Anchor 200 Group price £59
Anchor 300 Group price £74
Anchor 400 Group price £78

Identical poles; easy maintenance and pitching
Based on the Refuge, but with fewer features and lower spec materials

“...Really, really pleased with these tents. We were looking for an entry level tent for our bronze groups. We went for the three person version. Students commented on how roomy the tents were. Love the 3 equal sized poles...”
Paul, Paget High School
